

the appurtenances and all the estate, title and interest of the said party of the first part therein. And the said party of the first part does hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof he is the lawful owner of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances; that he has good right to sell and convey said premises, and that he will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons.

This Grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of $100 hundred and fifty Dollars and interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgage note and 12 interest notes or coupons, this day executed by the said party of the first part to wit:

Note No. 1. for $100 hundred and fifty Dollars due March 1st 1889. all dated March 1st 1886, payable to Edward Russell or order, at the Merchants Bank of Lawrence, Kans, with N. Y. Exch. with interest, payable semi-annually, on the first days of March and September each year, according to coupons attached to said note. The party of the first part further agrees that he will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent; and that he will keep the buildings on said property insured in some approved Insurance Company, payable in case of loss, to the mortgagee or assigns, and deliver the policy to the mortgagee, as collateral security herefor.

Now, If such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the party of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or

The following is endorsed on original instrument.
The note herein described having been paid in full, this mortgage is hereby released and the lien thereby created discharged.
