

8th day of September, 1953, and by their terms made payable to the parties of the second part, with all interest accruing thereon according to the terms of said obligation and also to secure any sum or sums of money advanced by the said parties of the second part to pay for any insurance or to discharge any taxes with interest thereon as herein provided, in the event that said parties of the first part shall fail to pay the same as provided in this indenture.

And this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified, and the obligation contained therein fully discharged. If default be made in such payments or any part thereof or any obligation created thereby, or interest thereon, or if the taxes on said real estate are not paid when the same become due and payable, or if the insurance is not kept up, as provided herein, or if the buildings on said real estate are not kept in as good repair as they are now, or if waste is committed on said premises, then this conveyance shall become absolute and the whole sum remaining unpaid, and all of the obligations provided for in said written obligation, for the security of which this indenture is given shall immediately mature and become due and payable at the option of the holder hereof, without notice, and it shall be lawful for the said parties of the second part to take possession of the said premises and all the improvements thereon in the manner provided by law and to have a receiver appointed to collect the rents and benefits accruing therefrom; and to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of all moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then unpaid of principal and interest, together with the costs and charges incident thereto, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the parties making such sale, on demand, to the first parties. The period of redemption shall be six months.

It is agreed by the parties hereto that the terms and provisions of this indenture and each and every obligation therein contained, and all benefits accruing therefrom, shall extend and inure to, and be obligatory upon the <sup>assigns and</sup> ~~heirs, executors, administrators,~~ successors of the respective parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year last above written.
