Dollars, according to the terms of one certain note this day executed and delivered by the said part 1es of the first part to the said party of the second part and this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified. But if default be made in such payments, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole amount shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law and out of all the moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then due for principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand, to said parties of the first part, their heirs and assigns.

In Witness Whereof, The said part 1es of the first part have hereunto set their hand^s and seal^s the day and year first above written.
