

This grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of Eight Hundred Dollars, according to the terms of a certain note this day executed and delivered by the said first parties to the said part Y of the second part and this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified. But if default be made in such payments, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole amount shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said part Y of the second part at the executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law; and out of all the moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then due for principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the part making such sale, on demand to said first parties

heirs and assigns

In Witness Whereof, The said part 1st of the first part has hereunto set their hand and seal the day and year first above written.
