Prior to January 1, 1965, none of the Bonds of Sixth Series may be redeemed through a refunding, directly or indirectly, by or in anticipation of the incurring of any debt which has an interest cost to the Company less than 4.99% per annum. The term "interest cost to the Company" shall mean the annual percentage yield to stated maturity of the debt at the net price to the Company therefor, determined by reference to a standard table of bond yields, with a straight-line interpolation if necessary. The "net price to the Company" shall be determined after allowing for all discounts, commissions, finder's fees or negotiator's fees, stand-by or commitment charges and any other compensation received or receivable directly from the Company by underwriters, investment bankers or other financing agents or purchasers. Prior to each redemption of any Bonds of Sixth Series at the option of the Company prior to January 1, 1965, the Company will deliver to the Trustee an officers' certificate showing compliance with the provisions of this paragraph.

Except as hereinafter provided, notice of redemption of Bonds of Sixth Series shall be published in one authorized Chicago newspaper and in one authorized New York newspaper at least once in each of four separate calendar weeks, the first publication to be made at least thirty and not more than sixty days before the date fixed for redemption, and shall also be mailed by or on behalf of the Company, postage prepaid, at least thirty and not more than sixty days prior to such date of redemption, to the registered owners of all coupon bonds at the time registered as to principal and of all registered bonds without coupons to be so redeemed, at their respective addresses appearing upon the registry books. If notice is published as herein provided, no failure to mail or to receive any such notice and no defect therein or in the mailing thereof shall affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any of the bonds so to be redeemed. No publication of notice of redemption shall be
