together in any case with interest accrued thereon to the date of redemption; upon at least thirty (30) days' prior notice (unless such notice is waived by all bondholders) given by publication at least once each week for three (3) successive calendar weeks in a newspaper printed in the English language and published daily, except Sundays and holidays (the first publication to be not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the redemption date) and of general circulation in the City of Kansas City, Missouri; provided, however, that the Bonds of Series G shall be subject to redemption in part from time to time in like manner through the operation of the sinking fund provided for in the said Indenture and through the application of proceeds of property sold to municipal or other governmental bodies at the principal amount thereof, without premium, together in any case with interest accrued thereon to the date of redemption, all as more fully provided in said Indenture. If this bond is called for redemption and payment duly provided, this bond shall cease to be entitled to the lien of said Indenture from and after the date payment is so provided and shall cease to bear interest from and after the date fixed for redemption.

The Bonds of Series G are entitled to the benefits of the sinking fund provided for in the Eighth Supplemental Indenture dated as of February 1, 1961.

To the extent permitted and as provided in said Indenture, modifications or alterations of said Indenture or of any indenture supplemental thereto, and of the rights and obligations of the Company and of the bearers or registered owners of the bonds and coupons, may be made with the consent of the Company by an affirmative vote or the written consents of the bearers or registered owners of not less than seventy-five per centum (75%) in principal amount of the bonds outstanding, and by an affirmative vote or the written consents of the bearers or registered owners of not less
