

to place of beginning. (This is a description of what was formally known as North Lawrence corner of Main & Elm Street with the appurtenances, and all the estate, title and interest of the said party of the first part therein. And the said party of the first part does hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof she is the lawful owner of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances; that she has good right to sell and convey said premises, and that she will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons.

This Grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of One hundred and fifty Dollars and interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgage note and six interest notes or coupons, this day executed by the said Elizabeth Miller.

Note No. 1 for One hundred & fifty Dollars, due July 1st 1889 all date July 1st 1886, payable to M. Bolles & Co., or order, at their Banking house, 70 State Street Boston, Mass., with interest, payable semi-annually, on the first days of January and July in each year, according to coupons attached to said note.

The party of the first part further agree that she will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent; and they will keep the buildings on said property insured in some approved Insurance Company, payable in case of loss, to the mortgage or assigns, and deliver the policy to the mortgage as collateral security hereto.

Now, If such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the party of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, or of said taxes or assessments as provided, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said
