

levied upon said premises, and insurance premiums for the amount of insurance hereinafter specified, when the same are due; and if not so paid, the party of the second part, or the legal holder of this mortgage, may, without notice, declare the whole sum of money herein secured due and payable at once, or may elect to pay such taxes, assessments and insurance premiums; and the amount so paid shall be a lien on the premises aforesaid, and be secured by this mortgage and collected in the same manner as the principal debt hereby secured, with interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent, per annum. But whether the legal holder of this mortgage elect to pay such taxes, assessments or insurance premiums or not, it is distinctly understood that the legal holder hereof may immediately cause this mortgage to be foreclosed.

Third: Said party of the first part hereby promise and agree that all buildings, fences and other improvements upon said premises shall be kept in as good repair and condition as the same are in at this date, and that no waste shall be committed on said premises until the debt hereby secured is fully paid.

Fourth: Said party of the first part hereby agree to procure and maintain policies of fire insurance on the buildings which now are or may hereafter be erected upon the above described premises, in some responsible insurance company, to the satisfaction of the legal holder of this mortgage, to the amount of Four hundred $400 Dollars; less, if any payable to the mortgagee or assigns. And it is further agreed that all policies of insurance shall be held by the party of the second part, or the legal holder hereof, as collateral and additional security for the payment of the debt hereby secured; and the person or persons so holding any such policies of insurance shall have the right to collect and receive any and all monies which may at any time become payable and receivable thereon, and apply the same, when
