payment of the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, according to the terms of one certain promissory bond made by the said Joseph A Shirk and Sarah A Shirk to the parties of the second part. Said promissory bond being given for the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, dated September 1st 1886 due and payable in five years from the date thereof, with interest thereon payable semiannually from the date thereof until paid, according to the terms of said promissory bond and ten certain coupons thereto attached. And this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as in said promissory bond and coupons thereto attached, and as hereinafter specified. And the parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes assessed on said premises before any penalties, cost or interest shall accrue on acount thereof and to insure and keep said premises insured in favor of parties of the second part or their assigns in a sum not less than Two Hundred and fifty Dollars, in some insurance companies satisfactory to the legal holder of this mortgage and to deposit with him all policies of insurance carried on said premises and to cause all renewal receipts to be made and deposited in like manner, at least ten days before the expiration of the policies renewed, in default whereof the parties of the second part, their executors, administrators, or assigns, may pay the taxes, penalties, cost and interest and insure the same at the expense of the parties of the first part, and the amount of such taxes, penalties, costs, interest, and insurance, shall, from the payment thereof, become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate twelve per cent, per annum. But if default be made by the parties of the first part, in such payments, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes assessed on said premises, or the insurance thereon, or upon the commission of waste, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and said promissory bond and interest thereon, and all taxes, penalties, costs, and
