

the second day of August 1887, and one instalment on the second days of February and August in each year thereafter, until the entire sum is fully paid.

And it is expressly agreed, that if default be made in the payment of any one of said instalments when due, or any part thereof, then all of said fifty dollars less the instalments paid, shall immediately become due and payable, and shall draw interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date hereof until paid. Appraisement and stay laws are hereby waived. This note is secured by a mortgage on real estate, duly recorded.

$50<sup>00</sup>

Now, if said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part its representatives or assigns, said sums of money in the above described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same; then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void; and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due; and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises, or any part thereof are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sums and interest thereon, shall, and by these presents become due and payable, and said party of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.
