

Warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons.

This Grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of One thousand Dollars, and interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgage note and ten interest notes or coupons, this day executed by the said John Richardson, to wit:

Note No. 1, for One thousand Dollars, due September 1st, 1891 all dated Sept. 1st 1886 payable to M. B. Folles & Co. or order, at their Banking house 72 State Street, Boston, Mass., with interest, payable semi-annually, on the first days of March and September in each year, according to coupons attached to said note. The party of the first part further agree that he will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent; and they will keep the buildings on said property insured to the amount of $ in some approved Insurance Company, payable in case of loss, to the mortgagee or assigns, and deliver the policy to the mortgagee as collateral security thereto.

Now, If such payments be made as herein specified this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the party of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or of said taxes or assessments as provided, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal sum and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part; and in case of such default of any sum covenanted to be paid, for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said parties agree to pay to said second party and his assigns, interest at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum, computed annually on said principal note, from the date thereof to the time when the money shall be actually paid, and any payments made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation, so that the total amount of interest collected shall be and not exceed the legal rate of 12 percent; but the party of the second part may pay any unpaid taxes charged against said property, or insure said property if default be made in keeping up insurance, and may recover for all such payments, with interest at twelve per cent. in any suit for foreclosure of this mortgage; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, Appraisement Waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part, and out of all the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due, or to become due, according to the conditions of this
