

possession of said party of the second part his heirs and assigns forever, against all persons lawfully claiming the same.

Provided always, and these presents are upon this express condition, that whereas the said parties of the first part are justly indebted unto the said W. C. Beardsley, in the principal sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, being for a loan thereof on the day and date herof, made by the said W. C. Beardsley to the said parties of the first part and secured to be paid by the certain promissory note of the said parties of the first part bearing even date herewith, payable to the order of the said W. C. Beardsley, in two years from the date thereof, at the office of said W. C. Beardsley, in the City of Auburn and State of New York, with interest after maturity, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum until the said principal sum is fully paid. The interest on said note from date is to be paid semi-annually, on the 7th day of February and of August in each and every year, and is specified by four (4) interest notes or coupons of even date herewith, attached to the said note and payable at the office of said W. C. Beardsley, in the City of Auburn, New York, and in and by said promissory note it is agreed that if default be made in the payment of any interest coupon at maturity, then the said principal sum of twelve hundred dollars with all the interest thereon, shall immediately become due and payable.

Now, if the said parties of the first part shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid the said sum of money in said note mentioned, with the interest thereon, according to the tenor and effect of said note, then these presents shall be null and void. But, if said sum of money, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due and payable, or if any taxes or assessments levied against said property,
