The following is enclosed on the same subject
 I now allude to their presence that I regretted the absence of Newport in their named dominion acknowledge full payment of the note by the foregoing mortgage secured and authority the Register of Deeds of Bristol County
 Newbury, to discharge the same of record. Advantages it will be to have deposited at my hands on this first day of April 1889
 Edw. S. D. Wadell (L.S.)
 State of Michigan, County of Oakland

Elizabeth S. Uaddell (L.S.)

Part of the day of April 18th the year 1861, I was in the yard and eight hundred and eighty nine before me, George P. Robinson a Notary Public in and over a County, personally assigned objects to me known to be his same person described in and who executed the foregoing authentication of the same, and he introduced the parties to me, he act and deed.

I have been thinking of you very much lately, especially since I received your letter of the 10th inst. I am glad to hear from you and hope you are well. I am still in the same old place, but I am getting on better than I was some time back. I am still in the same old place, but I am getting on better than I was some time back.
