

First: The said party of the first part is justly indebted unto the said party of the second part in the principal sum of One Thousand Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, being for a loan thereof made by the said party of the second part to the said party of the first part, and payable according to the tenor and effect of one certain Real Estate Mortgage Bond numbered 6799 executed and delivered by the said party of the first part bearing date January First 1887 and payable to the order of the said party of the second part the first day of January A.D. 1892 at the Third National Bank in the City of New York, with interest thereon, if paid, at maturity, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each year, and twelve per cent. per annum after maturity, the installments of interest being further evidenced by ten coupons attached to the principal bond and of even date therewith, payable to the order of the said party of the second part at the Third National Bank in the City of New York. It is agreed that in case the interest upon said principal bond or any of said coupons or any portion thereof shall remain unpaid for the space of ten days, then at the election of the said party of the second part the whole amount of said bond together with all accrued interest and all the sum of money secured by this mortgage deed shall become at once due and payable without notice, and may be collected in like manner as if said principal bond were past due.

Second: Said party of the first part hereby agrees to pay all taxes, and assessments levied upon said premises when the same are due, and insurance premiums for the amount of insurance hereinafter specified, and if not so paid the said party of the second part, or the legal holder of this mortgage may without notice declare the whole sum of money herein secured at
