

parties of the first part have this day executed and delivered one certain promissory note in writing to said party of the second part, of which the following IS A MEMORANDUM:

Date: June 12, 1963
Amount: $12,000.00
Maturity: Nine months from date

NOW, If said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part, and its assigns, said sum of money in the above-described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void; and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, or if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises, or any part thereof, are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sum and sums, and interest thereon, shall and by these presents become due and payable at the option of the holder hereof, and said part of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands, the day and year first above written.
