

To Have and To Hold the Same, Together with all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, forever:

Provided Always, And these presents are upon this express condition, that whereas said parties of the first part have this day executed and delivered one certain promissory note in writing to said party of the second part, of which the following IS A MEMORANDUM:

Date: January 28, 1964
Amount: $14,000.00
Rate: 6%
Maturity: Nine years
(Payable $800.00 plus interest August 1, 1964, $800.00 plus interest February 1, 1965, and a like amount plus interest August 1 and February 1 each year thereafter until maturity; balance at maturity.)

Now, if said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part & its assigns, said sum of money in the above described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void; and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises or any part thereof, are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable; then the whole of said sum and sums and interest thereon, shall, and by these presents, become due and payable, and said party of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hand the day and year first above written.
