And the said parties, of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they will warrant and defend the same against all parties making lawful claim thereto.

It is agreed between the parties hereto that the parties of the first part shall at all times during the life of this Indenture, pay all taxes and assessments that may be levied or assessed against said real estate when the same becomes due and payable, and that they will keep the buildings upon said real estate insured against fire and damages in such sum and by such insurance company as shall be specified and directed by the party, i.e., of the second part, the lessor, if any, and made payable to the party, i.e., of the second part to the extent of its interest. according to the terms of one certain written obligation for the payment of said sum of money, executed on the 11th day of November 1964, and by its terms made payable to the party, i.e., of the second part, with all interest accruing thereon according to the terms of said obligation and also to secure any sum or sums of money advanced by the said party, i.e., of the second part to pay for any insurance or to discharge any taxes with interest thereon as herein provided, in the event that said parties, of the first part shall fail to pay the same as provided in this Indenture.

And this instrument shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified, and the obligation contained therein fully discharged. If default be made in any payment or any part thereof or any obligation created thereby, or interest thereon, or if the taxes on said real estate are not paid when the same become due and payable, or if the insurance is not kept up, as provided herein, or if the buildings on said real estate are not kept in as good repair as they are now, or if waste is committed on said premises, then this conveyance shall become absolute and the whole sum remaining unpaid and all the obligations provided for in said written obligation, for the security of which this Indenture is given, shall immediately mature and become due and payable at the option of the holder hereof, without notice, and it shall be lawful for the said party, i.e., of the second part, to take possession of the said premises and all the improvements thereon in the manner provided by law and to have a receiver appointed to collect the rents and benefits accruing therefrom; and to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law; and out of all moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then unpaid of principal and interest, together with the costs and charges incident thereto, and the surplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party, making such sale, my demand, to the first part.
