

days' notice in writing, and to the Bondholders notice by publication, of such resignation, specifying a date when such resignation shall take effect, which notice shall be published at least once a week for two successive weeks in a financial journal published and of general circulation in the City of New York, New York. Such resignation shall take effect on the day specified in such notice, unless previously a successor trustee shall have been appointed by the Bondholders as hereinafter provided, in which event such resignation shall take effect immediately on the appointment of such successor trustee.

Any Trustee hereunder may be removed at any time by an instrument or instruments in writing, appointing a successor to the Trustee so removed, filed with the Trustee and executed by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Bonds hereby secured and then outstanding.

Section 8.19. Appointment of Successor Trustee: In case at any time the Trustee shall resign or shall be removed or otherwise shall become incapable of acting, or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent, or if a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed, or if a public officer or officers shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs, a vacancy shall forthwith and ipso facto be created in the office of such Trustee hereunder, and a successor may be appointed by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the said Bonds hereby secured and then outstanding, by an instrument or instruments in writing filed with the Trustee and executed by such Bondholders, notification thereof being given to the Borrower; but until a new trustee shall be appointed by the Bondholders as herein authorized, the Borrower, by an instrument executed by order of its Board shall, subject to the provisions hereof, appoint a trustee to fill such vacancy. After any such appointment by the Borrower, it shall cause notice of such appointment to be published
