To Have and To Hold the Same, Together with all and singular, the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, forever.

Provided Always, And these presents are upon this express condition, that whereas said

Mortgagors have this day executed and delivered one certain promissory note in writing to said parties of the second part, of which the following

This mortgage is given to secure the payment of the principal sum of THREE THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($ 3,000.00) as evidenced by a certain promissory note of even date herewith, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference, payable with interest at the rate of SEVEN per centum ( 7% ) per annum on the unpaid balance until paid, principal and interest to be paid at the office of American Real Estate, Inc. IN 901 Kentucky, Lawrence, Kansas, or at such other place as the holder of the note may designate in writing, in monthly installments of FIFTY AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($ 50.00) commencing on the first day of September 1966 and on the first day of each month thereafter, until the principal and interest are fully paid, except that the final payment of principal and interest, if not sooner paid shall be due and payable on the first day of January 1973 in the amount of $15.32

Now, if said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said parties of the second part their heirs or assigns, said sum of money in the above described, note above mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises or any part thereof, are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sum and sums and interest thereon, shall, and by these presents, become due and payable, and said parties of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hand the day and year first above written.
