

As to the existence or non-existence of any fact, or as to the sufficiency or validity of any instrument, paper or proceeding, the Trustees shall be entitled to rely upon a certificate of the Corporation signed and sworn to by its Treasurer.

Section 5. The Trustees are authorized at any time to permit any registered owner to inspect any statement or other document filed with them by the Corporation.

Section 6. The Corporate Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all services required to be performed by it hereunder. The Trustees shall have a lien prior to any other indebtedness secured hereby upon the mortgaged property for their reasonable compensation, advances, expenses and counsel fees incurred in and about the performance of their powers and duties hereunder, and the costs and expenses of defending against any liability in the premises of any character whatsoever, and the Corporation hereby covenants and agrees to pay unto the Trustees such compensation, advances, counsel fees and other expenses reasonably made or incurred in and about the performance of such duties and powers.

Section 7. The Trustees, or either of them, may buy, sell, own, accept in pledge or otherwise deal in bonds issued under this Indenture, with the same right and to the same extent as if they were not Trustees hereunder.

Section 8. Either Trustee may at any time resign from the trusts hereby created by giving thirty (30) days' written notice to the Corporation (or such shorter notice as the Corporation shall accept as adequate) and such resignation shall take effect at the end of said thirty (30) days or of such shorter period. Such notice may be served personally or sent by registered mail.

Either Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing, delivered to the Trustees and to the Corporation and signed by the registered owners of a majority in principal amount of the bonds hereby secured and then outstanding.
