Lot Eleven (11) in Block Two Hundred Two (202) in the city of Eudora, with the appurtenances and all the estate, title and interest of the said part of the first part therein.

And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they will warrant and defend the same against all parties making lawful claim thereto.

It is agreed between the parties hereto that the party of the first part shall at all times during the life of this indenture, pay all taxes and assessments that may be levied or assessed against said real estate when the same becomes due and payable, and that they will keep the buildings upon said real estate insured against fire and tornado in such sum and by such insurance company as shall be specified and directed by the party of the second part, the loss, if any, made payable to the party of the second part to the extent of 10% interest. And this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified, and the obligation contained therein fully discharged. If default be made in such payments or any part thereof, or any obligation created thereby, or interest thereon, or if the taxes on said real estate are not paid, when the same become due and payable, or if the insurance is not kept up, as provided herein, or if the buildings on said real estate are not kept in as good repair as they are now, or if waste is committed on said premises, then this conveyance shall become absolute and the whole sum remaining unpaid, and all of the obligations provided for in said written obligation, for the security of which this indenture is given, shall immediately mature, and become due and payable at the option of the holder hereof, without notice, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part to take possession of the said premises and all the improvements thereon in the manner provided by law and to have a receiver appointed to collect the rents and benefits accruing therefrom; and to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of all moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount first paid of principal and interest, together with the costs and charges incident thereto, and the overplus, if any, there be, shall be paid by the party of the second part, making such sale, on demand, to the first party.
