and all indebtedness in addition to the amount above stated which the said mortgagor, or any of them may owe to the mortgagee, however evidenced, whether by note, book account or otherwise. This mortgage shall remain in full force and effect between the parties hereto and their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, until all amounts secured hereunder, including future advances, are paid in full with interest; and upon the maturing of the present indebtedness for any cause, the total debt on any such additional loans shall at the same time and for the same specified causes be considered matured and be collectible out of the proceeds of sale through foreclosure or otherwise.

That if any improvements, repairs, or alterations have been commenced and have not been completed more than four months prior to the date hereof, the mortgagor will receive the proceeds of this loan as a trust fund to be applied first to the payment of the costs of the improvements and that the same will be so applied before using any part of the total for any other purpose; that if work ceases on any proposed improvements, repairs, or alterations for a period of ten days or more, then said mortgagee may at its option, without notice, declare said indebtedness due and payable or said mortgagee may take possession of said premises and let contract for or proceed with the completion of said improvement, repairs, or alterations and pay the costs thereof out of the proceeds of money due said mortgagor upon said loan and should the cost of completing said improvements, repairs, or alterations exceed the balance due said mortgagor by said mortgagee then such additional cost may be advanced by the mortgagee and shall bear interest at the same rate as principal indebtedness and secured by this mortgage, provided, however, such additional cost shall be repaid by said mortgagor to said mortgagee within ten days after completion of said improvements, repairs, or alterations; that said mortgagor, regardless of natural depreciation, will keep said property and the improvements thereon at all times in good condition and repair; and upon the refusal or neglect by said mortgagor to keep said property and the improvements thereon at all times in good repair, to pay promptly all taxes, insurance premiums, assessments, abstract and recording fees, levies, liabilities, obligations, principal, or interest on this or on any other encumbrance on said real property or to perform any other agreements, conditions, stipulations, or covenants as herein provided, the mortgagee may have such things done at mortgagor's cost and may make any reasonable expenditure or outlay necessary thereunder.

That if any part of said described property shall be condemned or taken for public use under eminent domain, or in case the property shall be damaged either by public works or private acts, all damages and compensation paid therefor shall be paid to the mortgagee and applied upon the indebtedness due under said note and this mortgage.

That the mortgagee shall have the right to file and to defend suits at the expense of the mortgagor, in his name, or in the name of the mortgagee, for the recovery of damages, to uphold the lien of this mortgage, to preserve the mortgagee's rights hereunder, or in any action whatsoever in which the mortgagee or mortgagor may be made a party or may elect to commence by reason of this instrument or indebtedness, including actions brought by mortgagor against the mortgagee, or shall have the right to employ counsel in an effort to prevent, to compromise, or to negotiate any such proposed litigation, and all sums expended as costs in connection therewith or advanced by the mortgagee shall be repaid by mortgagor upon demand or as may be expressly agreed upon by the mortgagee, and, if such
