Said note further provides: Upon transfer of title of the real estate mortgaged to secure this note, the entire balance remaining due hereunder may, at the option of the mortgagee, be declared due and payable at once, or the mortgagee may impose any one, or both, of the following conditions:

(a) Assess a transfer fee equal to one percent (1%) of the balance remaining due on this note, and if such fee is not paid, add said sum to this note, and the same shall become a lien on the real estate mortgaged to secure this note.

In that event, the then owner of the property mortgaged to secure this note may, at his option, pay off the entire balance remaining due, and the mortgagee shall not assess any prepayment penalty.

It is the intention and agreement of the parties hereto that this mortgage shall also secure any future advancements made to first parties, or any of them, by second party, and any and all indebtedness in addition to the amount above stated which the first parties, or any of them, may owe to the second party, however evidenced, whether by note, book account or otherwise. This mortgage shall remain in full force and effect between the parties hereto and their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, until all amounts due hereunder, including future advancements, are paid in full, with interest; and upon the maturing of the present indebtedness for any cause, the total debt on any such additional loans shall at the same time and for the same specified causes be considered matured and draw ten per cent interest and be collectible out of the proceeds of sale through foreclosure or otherwise.

First parties hereby assign to second party the rents and income arising at any and all times for the property mortgaged to secure this note, and hereby authorize second party or its agent, at its option upon default, to take charge of said property and collect all rents and income and apply the same on the payment of insurance premiums, taxes, assessments, repairs or improvements necessary to keep said property in tenantable condition, or other charges or payments provided for in this mortgage or in the note hereby secured. This assignment of rents shall continue in force until the unpaid balance of said note is fully paid. It is also agreed that the taking of possession hereunder shall in no manner prevent or retard second party in the collection of said sums by foreclosure or otherwise.

The failure of second party to assert any of its rights hereunder at any time shall not be construed as a waiver of its right to assert the same at a later time, and to insist upon and enforce strict compliance with all the terms and provisions in said note and in this mortgage contained.

If said first parties shall cause to be paid to second party the entire amount due it hereunder and under the terms and provisions of said note hereby secured, including future advances, and any extensions or renewals hereof, in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof, and comply with all the provisions in said note and in this mortgage contained, then these presents shall be void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect, and second party shall be entitled to the immediate possession of all of said premises and may, at its option, declare the whole of said note due and payable and have foreclosure of this mortgage or take any other legal action to protect its rights, and from the date of such default all items of indebtedness hereunder shall draw interest at the rate of 10% per annum.
