

And the said Milton D. Enslow and Anna R. Enslow do hereby covenant and agree, that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owner of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they will warrant and defend the same in the quiet and peaceable possession of said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever, against all persons lawfully claiming the same.

Provided Always, And these presents are upon this express condition, that whereas, the said Milton D. Enslow and Anna R. Enslow justly indebted unto the said Dr. Charles Wright in the principal sum of Six Hundred ($600) Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, being for a loan thereof on the day and date hereof, made by the said Dr. Charles Wright to the said Milton D. Enslow and Anna R. Enslow and secured to be paid by the certain promissory note of the said Milton D. Enslow and Anna R. Enslow bearing even date herewith, payable to the order of the said Dr. Charles Wright in three years from the date thereof, at the office of Wm. T. Sinclair in the City of Lawrence and State of Kansas, in N. Y. Exchange, with interest after maturity, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum until the said principal sum is fully paid. The interest on said note from date is to be paid semi-annually, on the Eighth day of March and of September in each and every year, and is specified by six interest notes or coupons of even date herewith, attached to the said note and payable at the office of Wm. T. Sinclair in the City of Lawrence, in N. Y. exchange, and in and by said promissory note it is agreed that if default be made in the payment of any interest coupon at maturity, then the said principal sum of Six hundred Dollars with all the interest thereon, shall immediately become due and payable.

Now, if the said parties of the first part shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid the said sum of money in said note mentioned, with the interest thereon, according to the tenor and effect of said note, then these presents shall be null and void. But, if said sum of money, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due and payable, or if any taxes or assessments levied against said property, are not paid when the same are payable, then, in either of these cases, the whole of said sum mentioned in said note, together with the interest thereon, shall, and by this indenture does immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part
