The grantors herein reserve the right to pay the note hereby secured March 1st 1889 or at the end of any year thereafter, by paying thirty days extra interest with the appurtenances and all the estate, title and interest of the said parties of the first part therein. And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein free and clear of all incumbrances; that they have good right to sell and convey said premises, and that they will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claim of all persons.

This Grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Six hundred and fifty Dollars, with interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgage note and ten interest notes or coupons, this day executed by the said parties of the first part, to wit:

Note No 1, for six hundred and fifty dollars, due March 1st 1893, all dated February 6th 1888, payable to Edward Russell, or order, at the Importers and Traders National Bank, New York City N.Y. with interest payable semi-annually on the first days of March and September in each year according to coupons attached to said note. The parties of the first part further agree that they will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent; and they will keep the buildings on said property insured for $ in some approved Insurance Company, payable in case of loss, to the mortgagee or assigns, and deliver the policy to the mortgagee, as collateral security hereto. Now if such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the parties of the first part. But if default be made in
