GRANTING CLAUSE SECOND

The leases (herein, together with all amendments and supplements thereto and any memoranda or short forms thereof entered into for the purpose of recording, registering or filing, called the Leases) of the Properties, dated as of January 15, 1971 between the Company, as lessor, and the Lessees, as lessees under the Leases; including all extended terms and all extensions and renewals of the terms thereof, together with the right, title and interest of the Company, as lessor, including, without limitation, the present and continuing right as such lessor (i) to make claim for, collect, receive and receipt for any of the rents, income, revenues, issues and profits and other sums of money payable to or receivable by the lessor thereunder, whether payable as rent or otherwise, (ii) to bring actions and proceedings thereunder or for the enforcement thereof and (iii) to do any and all things which the Company or any lessor is or may become entitled to do under the Leases; provided, that the assignment made by this Granting Clause Second shall not impair or diminish any obligation of the Company under the Leases, nor shall any such obligation be imposed upon the Trustees.

GRANTING CLAUSE THIRD

The guaranties, dated as of January 15, 1971, among the Trustees, the Company and McDonald's (herein, as the same may be amended or supplemented from time to time in the manner herein or therein provided, called the Guaranties) each of which Guaranties relates to a Lease of a Property to a Lessee other than McDonald's.

GRANTING CLAUSE FOURTH

Any and all property of every kind or description (including, without limitation, cash, bonds, stocks, obligations and
