Lessee), accountants, appraisers, engineers and architects and other skilled persons selected and employed by them. The reasonable expenses of such persons shall be paid by the Company. The Trustees shall not be liable for anything done, suffered or omitted in good faith by them in accordance with the opinion of any such person.

(e) The recitals and statements in this Indenture and the Notes (except for the Trustee's certificate of authentication endorsed on the Notes) are statements by the Company alone, and shall not be considered as made by, or as imposing any obligation or liability upon, the Trustees. The Trustees shall not be held responsible for the legality or validity hereof or of the Notes, any Lease, any Assignment, any Guaranty or any instrument of further assurance. In executing this Indenture, the Trustees make no covenant or representation as to the rights of the holders of the Notes, or the estate, right, title or interest of the Company in or to, or the condition of, the Trust Estate or the sufficiency of the security for the Notes afforded thereby.

(f) Whenever the Trustees shall, in administering the trusts, deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) may be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate or other instrument purporting to be signed by the President or a Vice President and the Treasurer or the Secretary of the Company and delivered to the Trustees. Such certificate or other instrument shall be full warrant to the Trustees for any action taken, suffered or omitted by them on the faith thereof, but, in their discretion, the Trustees
