

To immediately procure, maintain, pay all premiums on and keep in the possession of said Lender without lapse, policies of insurance in companies acceptable to the Lender against fire and extended coverage, in an amount equal to the unpaid balance of said note, covering the buildings now or hereafter erected upon said mortgaged premises, until the debt secured by said obligation, with interest, is paid in full. Said policies shall have mortgage clauses attached thereto making loss, if any, payable to said Lender as its interest may appear. In the event of loss, the Borrower shall give immediate notice to said Lender, and said Lender is hereby authorized to make proof of loss if the same are not made promptly by the Borrower. Said insurance companies are hereby authorized to make payments for such loss directly to said Lender, and the proceeds of such insurance, or any part thereof may be applied by the Lender, at its option, either to the reduction of the indebtedness or to the restoration or repair of the damaged property. In the event of foreclosure of this mortgage, or in the event of transfer of title to the mortgaged property in extinguishment of the debts represented by said note, all right, title and interest of the Borrower in and to the insurance policies then in force shall pass to the purchaser or grantee, as the case may be. A sum equal to 1/12th of the estimated insurance premiums shall be paid monthly in advance to said Lender, upon the regular monthly payment dates. If the fund so created with said Lender is insufficient to pay said premiums when due, the Borrower agrees to pay the difference upon demand. If the fund so created exceeds the amount of said premiums, the excess shall be credited to the Borrower, and applied on interest or principal or held for future premiums, as said Borrower may elect. The waiving of such monthly payments for insurance premiums at any time shall not bar said Lender from later requiring such payments from the Borrower. No interest shall be paid by said Lender on any prepaid insurance funds held by it on behalf of the Borrower.

To allow said Lender at any time during the term of this mortgage, and in its discretion, to apply for and purchase mortgage guaranty insurance, and to apply for renewal of such mortgage guaranty insurance covering this mortgage; and pay premiums due by reason thereof, and require repayment by the Borrower of such amounts as are so advanced by said Lender. In the event of failure by the Borrower to repay said amounts to said Lender, such failure shall be considered a default, and all provisions of this mortgage and the note secured hereby, with regard to default, shall be applicable.

To keep and maintain the buildings and other improvements now on said premises or hereafter erected thereon in good condition and repair at all times, and not suffer waste or permit a nuisance thereon.

To pay all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred or paid at any time by said Lender, including abstract or title insurance expenses, because of the failure of said Borrower to comply with the provisions in said note and in this mortgage contained, and the same shall be secured by this mortgage and may, at the option of said Lender, be added to the unpaid balance of said note.

To assign to said Lender all rents and income arising at any and all times from the property mortgaged to secure said note, and to authorize said Lender or its agent, at its option upon default, to enter into the possession of and take charge of said property, to collect and receipt for all rents and income therefrom and apply the same on the interest and principal payments due on said note including insurance premiums, taxes, assessments, repairs or improvements necessary to keep said property in tenantable condition, or to other charges provided for in this mortgage or in the note secured hereby. This rent assignment shall continue in force until the unpaid balance of said note is paid in full. It is also agreed that the taking possession of said property hereunder shall in no manner prevent or retard said Lender in the collection of said sums by foreclosure or otherwise.

In case of failure to pay all taxes and assessments when the same are by law due and payable, or a like failure to keep in force said policies of insurance, or a failure to make said repairs, said Lender may pay said taxes and assessments and maintain said insurance and make said repairs, and the amounts so expended by it shall be a lien on the premises described in this mortgage, and the same may be recovered with interest at a rate not to exceed 10% per annum, and said sums so advanced may, at the option of said Lender, be added to the unpaid balance of said note. Payment of any said items by said Lender shall not be construed as a waiver of that default or of the right of said Lender to foreclose this mortgage because of such default.

The loan evidenced by said note and secured by this mortgage has been made by said Lender by reason of the personal and financial responsibility of the Borrower. The real estate mortgaged to secure said note may be sold, conveyed or otherwise alienated by the Borrower at any time subject to the lien of this mortgage, provided, however, that in such event, the Borrower agrees that said Lender may, at its option and for any reason it deems sufficient, elect to declare all remaining principal and accrued interest remaining due on said note immediately due and payable and foreclose this mortgage.

In the event the real estate mortgaged to secure said note is so transferred before this loan is paid, said Lender may elect to accept the assuming grantee and waive its right to accelerate this note. In such event, said Lender may charge and collect a mortgage transfer fee of $75.00 for its services in making all required changes in its books, papers and records, and a fee not to exceed 1% of the then unpaid principal as consideration to said Lender as waiver of its contract right to accelerate said note and foreclose this mortgage. At the time of such acceptance of the assuming grantee by Lender, said Lender may increase the interest rate up to but not to exceed the then current rate being charged by the Lender on similar new loans, upon giving sixty (60) days notice in writing. In that event, the then owner of the property mortgaged to secure said note may, at his option, pay off the entire balance remaining due, and the Lender shall not assess any prepayment penalty. Failure to pay such transfer or waiver of acceleration fee or increased interest rate shall constitute a default, and said Lender may, at its option, then declare all remaining principal and accrued interest of said note immediately due and payable and foreclose this mortgage.

The Borrower may, by agreement with said Lender, obtain additional advances from the Lender for any purpose whatsoever, whether specified herein or not, and such advances shall become a part of the principal balance of said note, and shall be a lien on the property mortgaged to secure said note, and shall be repaid in accordance with the terms of said agreement, either in separate payments or as a part of the monthly payments provided for herein.

In the event of any default in the conditions or provisions of said note, said Lender may, at its option, and without notice, declare the whole amount of the indebtedness to be immediately due and payable, and may foreclose this mortgage. In case of any default, the balance of the indebtedness shall draw interest at 10% per annum from the beginning of such default until paid. Any principal prepayments in excess of 20% of the original principal within five years from the date hereof shall be subject to a prepayment penalty of not more than 90 days interest on the amount prepaid; except that any prepayment resulting from the refinancing of said note by said Lender to a new mortgagor shall be exempt from said penalty. No prepayment penalty shall be charged if payment in full is made after five years from date. Any principal payment in full entitles said Lender to interest to at least the following monthly due date.

The failure of Lender to assert any of its right hereunder at any time shall not be construed as a waiver of its right to assert the same at a later time, and to insist upon and enforce strict compliance with all the terms and provisions in said note and in this mortgage contained.

If said Borrower shall cause to be paid to Lender the entire amount due it hereunder, and under the terms and provisions of said note secured hereby, including future advances, and any extensions or renewals hereof, in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof, and comply with all the provisions in said note and in this mortgage contained, then these presents shall be void; otherwise remain in full force and effect, and Lender shall be entitled to the immediate possession of all said premises and may, at its option, declare the whole of said note due and payable and have foreclosure of this mortgage or take any other legal action to protect its rights, and from the date of such default all items of indebtedness of said note shall draw interest at the rate of 10% per annum. Appraisal and all benefits of homestead and exemption laws are hereby waived.

The Borrower has executed a note secured by this mortgage as of this date and said note is by this reference made a part hereof as though fully set out herein and this mortgage and said note shall be read together and shall constitute the contract between the parties hereto.

This mortgage shall extend to and bind the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the parties hereto. It is understood and agreed that this is a purchase money mortgage.
