

for ever, And the said Parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree, that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owner of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they will Warrant and defend the same in the quiet and peaceable possession of said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns for ever, against all persons lawfully claiming the same.

Provided always, And these presents are upon this express condition, that whereas the said Parties of the first part are justly indebted unto the said W. C. Beardsley, in the principal sum of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, being for a loan thereof on this day and date hereof, made by the said W. C. Beardsley, to the said Parties of the first part and secured to be paid by the certain promissory note of the said Parties of the first part bearing even date herewith, payable to the order of the said W. C. Beardsley, in three (3) years from the date thereof, at his office in the City of Auburn, and State of New York, with interest after maturity, or default in payment of interest, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum until the said principal sum is fully paid. The interest on said note from date to maturity, or default is to be paid semi-annually, on the 26th day of April and October in each and every year, and is specified by interest notes or coupons of even date herewith, attached to the said note and payable at said office of W. C. Beardsley, in the City of Auburn New York, and in and by said promissory note it is agreed that if default be made in the payment of any interest coupon at maturity, then the said principal sum of Three Hundred & Fifty Dollars with all the interest thereon, shall immediately become due and payable.

Now, if the said parties of the first part shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid the said sum of money in said note mentioned, with the interest thereon, according to the tenor and effect of said note, then these presents shall be null and void. But if said sum of money, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due and payable, or if any taxes or assessments levied against said property, are not paid when the same are payable, or if default shall be made in the agreement to keep said premises insured, as hereinafter set forth, then, in either of these cases, the whole of said sum mentioned in said note, together with the interest thereon, shall and by this indenture doth immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part or
