Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of four hundred dollars, according to the terms of one certain Note this day executed and delivered by the said Joseph Sloover & Lizzie Sloover to the said Emily P. Grover or payable at the office of T. Grover orson Lawrence KS as follows, to wit:

Four hundred dollars on the fifth day of July 1891      dollars on the day of 18 with the interest thereon, at 6 per cent per annum to the said party of the second part. And this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as is herein specified. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for said party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part her executors, administrators or assigns, and out of all the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due of principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable attorney's fee for foreclosure of his mortgage, the said fee to be due and payable on filing petition for foreclosure, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, otherwise, to the said Joseph Sloover his heirs or assigns.

In witness Whereof the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands & sealed the day and year last above written.
