

the parties of the first part therein.

This Grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment and the full performance of all the obligations and conditions of a certain bond this day executed by the said Richard J. Sicks to the said Home Building and Loan Association, for the sum of $300, as therein provided; and upon the full and prompt performance of all said conditions of said bond by the party signing the same, this conveyance shall be void. But if default be made in the performance of any of the conditions of said bond, or in the making of any payment therein provided when the same shall be due; or if he makes any encumbrances of every nature which are assessed or levied against said premises are not paid at the time when the same are by law made due and payable, then upon the happening of any of said failures, the whole of the said sum of $300, together with such fine and penalties as shall accrue under the By-Laws of said Association, shall immediately become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, with his executors, administrators, and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of all the money arising from such sale, to retain the amount of said bond, to wit: $300, less only the amount of deduction as principal upon said bond, together with the cost and charge of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand to the said Richard J. Sicks, his heirs and assigns.

In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have countersigned their hands and sealed the day and year above written.
