

apertinances, and all the estate, title and interest of the said parties of the first part therein. And the said John W. Wilder Trustee do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof he is the lawful owner of the premises above granted and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free, and clear of all incumbrances and that he will warrant and defend the same against all claims what so ever. This Grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Five hundred $⁰⁰ Dollars, according to the terms of One certain promissory note this day executed by the said John W. Wilder and Anne P. Wilder to the said parties of the second part. Said note being given for the sum of Five hundred $⁰⁰ Dollars, dated September 21st 1855 due and payable in five years from date thereof with interest thereon from the date thereof, until paid according to the terms of said note and coupons thereto attached. And this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as in said note and coupons thereto attached, and as is hereinafter specified. And the said parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes assessed on said premises before any penalties or costs shall accrue on account thereof, and to keep the said premises insured in favor of the said mortgagee, in the sum of Five hundred $⁰⁰ Dollars, in some insurance company satisfactory to said mortgagee, in default whereof the said mortgagee may pay the taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insure the same at the expense of the party of the first part, and the expense of such taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insurance, shall form the payment thereof be and become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall be as interest at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes assessed on said premises, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole principal of said note, and interest thereon, and all taxes and accruing penalties and interest and costs thereon remaining unpaid or which may have been paid by the party of the second part, and all sums paid by the parties of the second part for insurance, shall be due and payable or not, at the option of the parties of the second part; and it shall be lawful for the parties of the second part their executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, with or without a sale, waived or not at the option of the parties of the second part their executors, ad-
