

multiple thereof at the end of any year by paying 30 days extra interest with the appurtenances and all the estate title and interest of the said parties of the first part, herein. And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances; that they have good rights to sell and convey said premises, and that they will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claim of all persons.

This grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Sixteen hundred Dollars and interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgage note and eleven interest notes or coupons this day executed by the said Parties of the first part to wit:

Note No. 1, for Sixteen hundred Dollars, due April first 1874 and dated April first 1879, payable to Russell & McCall for order, at the Importers & Traders National Bank of New York City with interest payable semi-annually on the first days of April and October in each year, according to coupons attached to said note. The party of the first part further agree that they will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent; and they will keep the buildings on said property insured for $10000 in income approved Insurance Company payable in case of loss to the mortgagee or assigns and deliver the policy to the mortgagee, as collateral security hereto.

Now if such payment be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the parties of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, or of said taxes or assessments, as provided, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part; and in case of such default of any sum conveanted to be paid, for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to said second party and his assigns, interest at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum, computed annually on said principal note, from date hereof to the time when the money shall be actually paid, and any payments made on account of interest for time past shall be credited in said computation, so that the total amount of interest collected shall be, and not exceed, the legal rate of 12 per cent.; but the party of the second part may pay any unpaid taxes charged against said property, or insure said property if default be made in keeping up insurance, and may recover for all such payments with interest at twelve per cent., in any suit for foreclosure of this mortgage; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time there-
