premises before they shall become delinquent; and they will keep the buildings on said property insured for $500.00 in some approved Insurance Company, payable in case of loss, to the mortgagee or assigns, and deliver the policy to the mortgagee, as collateral security hereto.

Now, if such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void and shall be released upon demand of the party of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon or of said taxes or assessments as provided, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part; and in case of such default of any sum covenanted to be paid for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to said second party and his assigns, interest at the rate of ten percent per annum, computed annually on said principal note from date thereof to the time when the money shall be actually paid, and any payment made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation, so that the total amount of interest collected shall be, and not exceed, the legal rate of ten per cent.; but the party of the second part may pay any unpaid taxes charged against said property, or incur said property if default be made in keeping up insurance, and may recover for all such payments, with interest at ten percent, in any suit for foreclosure of this mortgage; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law. Appraisement waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part and out of all the money arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due, or to become due, according to the conditions of this instrument, and interest at ten percent per annum from the time of said default until paid, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable attorney's fee for the foreclosure of this mortgage, to be taxed as other costs in the suit.

In Witness Whereof, the said party of the first part has hereunto set her hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Mrs Elizabeth Miller
