

this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as in said note and coupons thereto attached, and as is hereinafter specified. And the said parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes assessed on said premises before any penalties or costs shall accrue on account thereof, and to keep the said premises insured in favor of the said mortgagee, in the sum of Three hundred (if any be left after first Mortgage is satisfied) Dollars, in some insurance company satisfactory to said mortgagee in default whereof the said mortgagee may pay the taxes and accruing penalties, interests and costs, and insure the same at the expense of the parties of the first part, and the expense of such taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insurance shall from the payment thereof be and become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum. But if default be made in such payments or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes assessed on said premises, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole principal of said note and interest thereon, and all taxes and accruing penalties and interest and costs thereon remaining unpaid or which may have been paid by the party of the second part, and all sums paid by the party of the second part for insurance, shall be due and payable or not, at the option of the party of the second part, and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part his executors, administrators or assigns; and out of all the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due or to become due according to the conditions of this instrument, together with the costs and charges of making such sale and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand, to the said Julia N. Skofstad or her heirs or assigns.

In Witness whereof The said parties of the first part have hereunto their hands and seals the day and year last above written.
