

shall be void. But if default be made in the performance of any of the conditions of said bond, or in the making of any payments therein provided when the same shall be due; or if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are assessed or levied against said premises are not paid at the time when the same are by law made due and payable, then upon the happening of any said failure, the whole of said sum of $500, together with such fines and penalties as shall accrue under the by-laws of said Association, shall immediately become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part, or assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law of appraisal thereby waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part or assigns; and out of the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount of said bond, to wit: $500 less only the amount of dues paid as principal upon said bond together with the cost and charges of making such sale; and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand, to the said parties of the first part, their heirs and assigns.

The parties of the first part hereby agree to maintain insurance to the amount of $500 on said property, as provided in the by-laws of said Association.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above written
