

assigns forever, against all persons lawfully claiming the same. This grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Eleven hundred Dollars according to the terms of one certain mortgage note this day executed and delivered by the said parties of the first part to the said party of the second part: due in five years after date, with interest after maturity or default until paid, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, the interest from date to maturity or default being evidenced by coupons attached to said note and this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole amount shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not at the option of the party of the second part his executors, administrators or assigns; and out of all the moneys arising from such sales, to retain the amount then due for principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sales, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale on demand to the said parties of the first part, their heirs and assigns.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part, have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
