

And the said parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes and assessments levied and assessed against said premises before any costs or penalties shall accrue thereon, in default whereof said part of the second part may pay such taxes, and any penalties and costs which may have accrued thereon, and such taxes, penalties, costs and insurance, shall from the date of payment be an additional lien under this mortgage, on said above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum. But if default be made in the payment of said notes, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, or of the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole amount specified in said notes and the interest thereon, and all taxes and insurance paid by said second party or her assigns, become and be due and payable, or not, at the option of said second party or assigns, said option to be exercised without any notice whatever; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part her executors, administrators, or assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part, her executors, administrators, or assigns, and out of all the money arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due according to the provisions of this instrument, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale on demand to the said Augustus L. Wood his heirs or assigns.

In Testimony Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

Augustus L. Wood [seal]

Emma L. Wood [seal]

State of Kansas, Douglas County, ss.

Be it Remembered, That on this Twenty second day of September A.D. 1890 before me, Joseph E. Riggs, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, came Augustus L. Wood and Emma L.
