For Value Received, I hereby sell, assign and transfer to W. C. Beardsley, of Auburn, New York, all my right, title and interest in and to three certain promissory notes for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars each executed by R. W. Gorrell and Helen B. Gorrell to me, dated April 29, 1890, together with mortgage given to secure said notes, executed by said R. W. Gorrell and wife, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for Douglas County, Kansas on the 20th day of May, A.D. 1890, in Book 21 of Mortgages, at page 535; said mortgage being given to secure the payment of the sum of Eighteen Hundred Dollars, according to the terms of four certain promissory notes, one of said notes, to-wit: the note due on or before one year after date, for the sum of Three Hundred Dollars being retained by me, the remaining three notes secured by said mortgage being hereby assigned to said W. C. Beardsley.

The above Assignment is intended as collateral security only, and is given to secure the payment of my note of even date, given to said W. C. Beardsley, for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, due in three years from date, with interest as evidenced by coupons attached to said note; and upon payment of said note and interest, this assignment to be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
