

lawful owner of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances; that it has good right to sell and convey said premises, and that it will Warrant and Defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons.

This Grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of One hundred and eighty one Dollars, and interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgage note and four interest notes or coupons, this day executed by the said party of the first part, by its Board of Trustees, of the following to wit:

Note No 1, for One hundred and eighty one Dollars, due March 1st 1893 all dated March 3rd 1891, payable to Russell and Metcalf or order, at the Importers and Traders National Bank, New York City, N. Y., with interest payable semi-annually on the first days of September and March in each year, according to coupons attached to said note. The party of the first part further agrees that it will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent; and they will keep the buildings on said property insured for $500⁰⁰ in some approved Insurance Company, payable in case of loss to the mortgagee or assigns and deliver the policy to the mortgagee, as collateral security, hereto.

Now, if such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the party of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, or of said taxes or assessments, as provided, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part; and in case of such default of any sum covenanted to be paid for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to said second party and his assigns interest at the rate of (10) per cent. per annum, computed annually on said principal note, from date thereof to the time when the time when the money shall be actually paid, and any payments made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation, so that the total amount of interest collected shall be, and not exceed, the legal rate of (10) per cent; but the party of the second part, may pay any unpaid taxes charged against said property, or insure said property, if default be made in keeping up insurance, and may recover for all such payments, with interest at ten per cent, in any suit for foreclosure of this mortgage; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, Appraisement Waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part, and out of all the moneys arising from
