This Grant is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Five hundred and twenty five Dollars and interest thereon according to the terms of two certain mortgage notes and ten interest notes or coupons this day executed by the said Charles J. Sawl to wit:

Note No. 1, for Five hundred Dollars, due March 1st, 1896

Note No. 2, for Twenty five Dollars due March 1st, 1892 all dated March 4th 1891, payable to Russell & Metcalf or order, at the Importers and Traders National Bank of New York City, N. Y. with interest payable semi-annually on the first days of March and September in each year, according to coupons attached to said note. The party of the first part further agrees that he will pay all taxes and assessments upon the said premises before they shall become delinquent.

Now, if such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void, and shall be released upon demand of the party of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, or of said taxes or assessments, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part; and in case of such default of any sum covenant-ly paid, for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to said second party and his assigns interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum computed annually on said principal note, from date thereof to the time when the money shall be actually paid, and any payments made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation, so that the total amount of interest collected shall be, and not exceed the legal rate of 10 per cent; but the party of the second part may pay any unpaid taxes charged against said property, and may recover for all such payments, with interest at ten per cent, in any suit for foreclosure of this mortgage; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, Appraisement Waived or not, at the option of the party of the second part, and out of all the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due, or to become due, according to the conditions of this instrument; and interest at ten per cent. per annum from the time of said default until paid, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable attorney's fee for the foreclosure of this mortgage, to be taxed as other costs in the suit.

In Witness Whereof, the said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.
