

State of New York

Tompkins County Clerk's Office.

I, Leroy H. Van Kirk, Clerk of said County, and of the Supreme and County Courts thereof, being Courts of Record, do hereby certify that B. R. Williams Esq., was at the date of proof or acknowledgment of the annexed instrument, a Notary Public, in and for said County, duly authorized and qualified to take the same; that I am well acquainted with his handwriting and verily believe that the signature to said certificate is genuine, and that said instrument is executed and acknowledged according to the laws of this State, to entitle it to be recorded therein.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said County and Courts, at Ithaca, this 6th day of May, 1891.

Greeting-

Know ye, that at the County of Tompkins, on the 16th day of February, 1891, before Marcus Lyon, Surrogate of our said County, The Last Will and Testament of Susan E. N. Halladay deceased, was proved, and is now approved and allowed by us. And the said deceased having been at the time of her death a resident of the County of Tompkins, by means whereof the proving of said will, and the granting of administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of said testator and also the auditing, allowing and judicially settling the account thereof, doth belong to us; the administration of all and singular, the goods, chattels and credits of said deceased, in any way disposed of or affected by said will, is granted unto William H. Fitch, the sole executor in said will named, he having been first duly sworn, well, faithfully and honestly to discharge the duties of such executor.
