

This Indenture, Made this 27th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one between Melinda Worthington and Charles Worthington, her husband of Lawrence in the County of Douglas and State of Kansas of the first part, and John J. Sinclair of Lawrence, Kansas of the second part,

Witnesseth, That the said parties of the first part in consideration of the sum of Ninety DOLLARS, to Him duly paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have sold and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and mortgage to the said party of the second part his heirs and assigns forever, all that tract or parcel of land situated in the County of Douglas and State of Kansas, described as follows, to-wit: Lot 30 Seventy-six (76), on Ohio Street, in the City of Lawrence being the homestead of the said parties of the first part with all the appurtenances, and all the estate, title and interest of the said parties of the first part therein. And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree, at the delivery hereof, they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein free and clear of all incumbrances, and a prior mortgage of twelve hundred dollars to H. C. Beardsley and that they will warrant and defend the same in the quiet and peaceable possession of the said party of second part his heirs and assigns forever against all persons lawfully claiming the same. This grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Ninety Dollars.

according to the terms of ten certain mortgage notes this day executed and delivered by the said party of the first part to the said party of the second part: payable at fall or semi-annual dates of Nine dollars on the 27th days of March and September in each year until said sum of Ninety dollars is fully paid, with interest after maturity or default at the rate of ten per cent per annum.

and this conveyance shall be void if such payments be made as herein specified. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole amount shall become due and payable, and it shall be lawful for the said party of the second part his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not at the option of the party of the second part his executors, administrators or assigns; and out of all moneys arising from such sales, to retain the amount then due for principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sales, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale on demand to the said parties of the first part their heirs and assigns.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part, have hereunto set their hand and seal the day and year first above written.
