

and twenty five Dollars, and interest thereon, according to the terms of one certain mortgagene note and ten interest notes or coupons, this day executed by the said parties of the first part to wit: Note No. 1, for two hundred twenty five Dollars, due December 5, 1892, and dated December 5, 1892, payable to Russell and Metcal for order, at the Importers and Traders National Bank of New York City, N.Y., with interest payable semi-annually on the first days of June and December in each year, according to coupons attached to said note. The parties of the first part further agree that they will pay all taxes and assessments before they shall become delinquent; and they will

Now if such payments be made as herein specified, this conveyance shall be void and shall be released upon demand of the parties of the first part. But if default be made in the payment of said principal sum, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, or of said taxes or assessments, as provided, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal and interest shall immediately become due and payable at the option of the party of the second part, and in case of such default of any sum covenanted to be paid, for the period of ten days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to said second party and his assigns, interest at the rate of ten percent, per annum, computed annually on said principal note, from date thereof to the time when the money shall be actually paid and any payments made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation so that the total amount of interest collected, shall be, and not exceed the legal rate of interest; but the party of the second part may pay any unpaid taxes charged against said property or insure said property if default be made in keeping up insurance, and may recover for all such payments, with interest at ten percent, in any suit for foreclosure of this mortgage; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, if appraised to be sold, or not, at the option of the party of the second part, and out of all the moneys arising from such sale, to retain the amount then due, or to become due, according to the conditions of this instrument, and interest at ten percent, per annum, from the time of said default until paid, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable attorney's fee for the foreclosure of this mortgage, to be taxed as other costs in the suit.

In Witness Whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands & seals, the day and year first above written.
