The note, hereon described, having been paid in full, this mortgage is hereby released and the lien thereby created discharged.
As witness my hand this 20th day of May A.D. 1894

Recorded May 20th 1894

Wm. C. Coleman

This Indenture, Made this Tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety three between William C. Coleman and Lucie C. Coleman husband and wife of Baldwin in the County of Douglas and State of Kansas, of the first part, and Cecilia C. Towne Administratrix of Lawrence Kansas of the second part:

Witnesseth, That, the said parties of the first part, in consideration of the sum of Five hundred Dollars, to them duly paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have sold and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and mortgage to the said party of the second part, her heirs and assigns forever, all that tract or parcel of land, situated in the County of Douglas and State of Kansas, described as follows, to-wit: Lots 60 sixty 62 sixty two 64 sixty four and 66 sixty six on Dearborn Street in Baldwin Douglas Co. Kansas with the appurtenances, and all the estate, title and interest of the said parties of the first part therein and the said William C. Coleman and Lucie C. Coleman his wife do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, and that they will warrant and defend the same against all claims whatsoever. This Grant is intended as a Mortgage to secure the payment of the sum of Five hundred Dollars, according to the terms of a certain promissory note this day executed by the said William C. Coleman wife to the said party of the second part. Said note being given for the sum of Five hundred Dollars dated March 10. 1892 due and payable in five years from date thereof with interest thereon from the date thereof, until paid according to the terms of said note and coupons thereto attached. And this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as in said note and coupons thereto attached, and as is hereinafter specified. And the said parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes assessed on said premises before any penalties or costs shall accrue on account thereof, and to keep the said premises insured in favor of the said mortgage, in the sum of Five hundred Dollars in some insurance company satisfactory to said mortgage, in default whereof the said mortgagee may pay the taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insure the same at the expense of the parties of the first part, and the expense of such taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insurance, shall from the payment thereof be and become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum. But if default be made in such payment, or any part thereof, or interest thereon or the taxes assessed on said premises, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole principal of said note, and interest thereon, and all taxes and accruing penalties and interest and costs thereon remaining unpaid or which may have been paid by the party of the second part, and all sums paid by the party of the second part for insurance, shall be due and payable or not at the option of the party of the second part; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part, her executors, administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises
