

note in writing to said party of the second part of which the following is a copy:

$5000⁰⁰

Lawrence Kame April 20th 1893

On or before May 1st 1895 after date for value received I promise to pay John M. Garvin or order at the Merchants National Bank five thousand Dollars with interest at six per cent per annum after date until paid, interest payable semi-annually.

rm. Schaake

Now, If said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, said sum of money in the above-described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises, or any part thereof are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sum and sums, and interest thereon, shall, and by these presents, become due and payable, and said party of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises.

In Witness Whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands, the day and year first above written
