

said Caroline Savage has this day executed and delivered one certain promissory note in writing to said party of the second part, of which the following is a copy:
 700⁰⁰ Richland Kansas Aug. 29. 1893.

On or before Five years after date I, w. or either of promise to pay David Neese or order Seven Hundred $\frac{00}{100}$ Dollars at Neese Brothers Bank Richland Kans. for value received with interest at Eight per cent per annum from date until paid interest payable annually.

Caroline Savage

Now, If said party of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part, his heirs or assigns, said sum of money in the above-described note mentioned, together with the interest thereon, according to the terms and tenor of the same, then these presents shall be wholly discharged and void, and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, is not paid when the same is due, and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which are or may be assessed and levied against said premises, or any part thereof, are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable, then the whole of said sum and sums, and interest thereon, shall, and by these presents, become due and payable, and said part of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises.

In Witness Whereof, The said party of the first part has hereunto set her hand, the day and year first above written.
