Fifth.- If such payments be made as are herein specified, this conveyance shall be void; but if said principal or interest notes or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, be not paid according to the terms of said notes, or if said taxes or assessments be not paid as provided herein, or if default be made in the agreement to insure, or in the covenant against incumbrances, or in any other covenant herein contained, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole of said principal shall immediately become due and payable, at the option of the party of the second part; and in case of default of payment of any sum herein covenanted to be paid, for the period of thirty days after the same becomes due, the said first parties agree to pay to the said second party, and her assigns, interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, computed annually on said principal note, from the date thereof to the time when said principal and interest shall be fully paid; and any payments made on account of interest shall be credited in said computation, so that the total amount of interest paid shall be and not exceed the legal rate of ten per cent.

In Witness Whereof, The said parties of the first part have hereunto subscribed their names and affixed their seals, on the day and year above mentioned.
