

from April 1, 1897 and April 1, 1898 respectively, with interest thereon from the date thereof until paid according to the terms of said notes and coupons thereto attached. And this conveyance shall be void if such payment be made as in said notes and coupons thereto attached, and as is hereinafter specified. And the said parties of the first part hereby agree to pay all taxes assessed on said premises before any penalties or costs shall accrue on account thereof, and to keep the said premises insured in favor of said mortgage, in the sum of One thousand five hundred Dollars, in some insurance company satisfactory to said mortgage, in default whereof the said mortgage may pay the taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insure the same at the expense of the parties of the first part, and the expense of such taxes and accruing penalties, interest and costs, and insurance, shall from the payment thereof be and become an additional lien under this mortgage upon the above described premises, and shall bear interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum. But if default be made in such payment or any part thereof, or interest thereon, or the taxes assessed on said premises, or if the insurance is not kept up thereon, then this conveyance shall become absolute, and the whole principal of said notes, and interest thereon, and all taxes and accruing penalties and interest and costs thereon remaining unpaid or which may have been paid by the party of the second part and all sums paid by the party of the second part for insurance, shall be due and payable or not, at the option of the party of the second part; and it shall be lawful for the party of the second part her executors and administrators and assigns, at any time thereafter, to sell the premises hereby granted, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, appraisement hereby waived or not at the option of the party of the second part, her executors, administrators or assigns; and out of all the moneys arising from such sale to retain the amount then due according to the conditions of this instrument, together with the costs and charges of making sale, and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid by the party making such sale, on demand, to the said parties of the first part their heirs and assigns.

In Testimony Whereof, the said parties of the first part, have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year last above written.
