by advertisement in two daily newspapers, one published in the City of New York and the other published in the City of Chicago, in the State of Illinois. Immediately after every drawing, the Company shall cause the numbers of the bonds drawn for redemption to be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in one daily newspaper published in the City of New York, and in one such newspaper published in the City of Chicago, and shall also, in the case of any bond drawn for redemption which shall for the time being be registered, cause a notice thereof to be sent by post to the registered holder.

Every bond so drawn for redemption shall become redeemable and shall be redeemed by the Company on the first day of December next succeeding such drawing at the price for each bond (in addition to all accrued interest) of one thousand one hundred ($1,100) dollars in gold coin of the United States, of the standard weight and fineness. Every such bond shall thereupon, from said first day of December, cease to carry interest, unless the same shall not be redeemed, through some default on the part of the Company, but the interest on all redeemed bonds shall each year be added to the annual cumulative sinking fund of one hundred and ten thousand ($110,000) dollars. The registered or other holder of this bond, as the case may be, shall, on the redemption thereof, deliver the same to the Company, together with all subsequent coupons, and shall sign such receipt (if any) as shall be reasonably required by the Company. The Company will forthwith, after the redemption of any bond under this clause, deliver the same duly canceled to the Illinois Trustee, or its successors in the trust.

Article XIII.

Any request in writing, or other instrument in writing, required to be signed or executed by the holders of bonds, may be in any number of parts, and may be signed or executed by such bondholders in person or by attorney in fact, and delivery of any such request or other instrument to The Northern Trust Company or its successors in the trust hereby created, shall be in all respects sufficient and shall have the same effect as if delivered to both of the Trustees.

Proof of the due execution of any such request or other instrument by the holders of the requisite amount of bonds, if made in the following manner, shall be sufficient, viz.: the certificate of the Company, or of any trust company, banking corporation or firm in the United States, approved by either of the Trustees, or by either of their successors in the trusts. Such certificate, being acknowledged before a notary public or any other officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds either by the party giving such certificate, or by any principal officer of such party, shall be sufficient proof as to the amount of the bonds held by the persons signing such request or other instrument, and as to the issue and number of such bonds, and as to the signatures to such request or other instrument, and the date of the execution thereof. The holding of bonds by the persons signing any such request or other instrument may also be proven
